

TENNESSEE MILITARY COLLECTORS ASSOCIATION PO BOX 1006 ~ BRENTWOOD, TN 37024

TMCA HISTORY

Interested collectors in the Middle Tennessee area formed the TMCA in 1976. The organization has two shows each year in the Nashville vicinity. Dealers come from across the United States and as far away as Germany and England.

TMCA members are hobbyists who collect, trade, and sell historical militaria and memorabilia. Their interests cover a wide field representing every war and nation involved with the United States from the Civil War through Operation Enduring Freedom. No political ideology is espoused.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

As a member of the TMCA, you are entitled to free admission at the two militaria shows each year. Additionally, only TMCA members and exhibitors are allowed attendance on Friday morning during set up and the first hours of our militaria shows, thus getting first choice on many collectibles.

Meetings and sharing information with other fellow collectors at our shows and at meetings held in Nashville is also a membership plus. You can nominate and vote for TMCA officers, which are elected for two-year terms. Keep up to date on all forthcoming club activities through the TMCA webpage: www.tmcaonline.org or join our mailing list for notices.

You will be updated on club news via TMCA newsletters, either by mail or the web.
